

WREN SIGNPOST

DEAR TEACHER

So many of you have said that you enjoy art and being creative. Our writing activity today is from POBBLE and includes one very creative boy called Danny.

Have a look at the picture in the middle of the page.

- What is Danny drawing in the picture?
- What do you think Danny's teacher and classmates think about his talent?

Use the story starter below to write your own story about Danny. What will happen next?

GRAMMAR

When you finish your writing can you make a tally chart showing how many times you have used the following word classes: noun, adjective, verb, adverb.

A noun is an object or thing. An adjective is a describing word. A verb is an action, and an adverb describes the verb.

Can you start by counting the ones I have used below?

Occasionally, Danny whistled as he drew his skilful, detailed pictures.

CREATIVE

Imagine you possessed Danny's powers.

Can you draw a picture of something you would like to come alive?

MATHS

We have had such fun solving the maths mystery in class. I have included another one today.

If you would like a different task you could begin to look at a new times table. There are tools on Purple Mash to support this and you could test your knowledge on TopMarks Hit the Button. We look at 2, 5, 3 and 10 in year 2 and 4, 6, 8 in Year 3.

Try to do some work on each of the tasks but do try and do more about the one you like the sound of most.
Ask a parent to upload your work to Tapestry.

NATURE

Use natural materials to make a kite.

If it is rainy, have a look at the activities on Tree Tools.

Story Starter

Everyone has a favourite subject at school. Danny's was art. To everyone who met Danny, it was obvious why this was the case.

If you ever visit an art gallery, you may hear people say things like "Isn't this painting wonderful? Just look at how the incredible brush strokes bring the objects alive!" Now this kind of comment was entirely put to shame by Danny's skills. You see, the paintings that Danny did ACTUALLY come alive!

Casually standing on a box at the front of the classroom, Danny held the small, crumbly piece of chalk in his hand. Pressing it against the blackboard, he skilfully continued sketching his latest masterpiece...
