1. Have a play with the Viking Wordsearch I've added in the Classroom.
2. 20 minute morning read - REMEMBER this is probably the most important thing to keep up with!!
3. Spellings: Write a short story with this week' spellings (all spelt correctly, of course!)

Tuesday Miss Hill Today's task is to draw/paint/create a self-portrait. This can be in whatever artistic style you like and can be realistic or fantastical - the only thing I ask is that the portrait really shows who YOU are as a person. Have a super day and remember to email your work to me at nhill@meldreth.education .

Citius Altius Fortius In preparation for Sports day, why not make your own Olympic torch plus an Olympic Flag for your House
Be ready to wave and use them on Friday!

practise Recorder

Write down in the Classroom which tunes in the Blown Away recorder practice you have had a practice of.

PE——PRACTICE FORSPORTSDAY

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, I shall post two of the activities for Sports Week! IMPORTANT: Send me your results!

1. Speed bounce Make a line on the ground. How many times can you jump side to side over the line in 60 seconds? You score 1 point per jump.

2. Get it in the bucket Place down a bucket or box. Use three cones to create three throwing lines (each 2 m away from the previous). Throw a ball to get it in the bucket. If you get the ball in the bucket you move back to the next cone and so on. Which cone can you make it to in 60 secs?
cone $1=10 \mathrm{p}+$
cone $2=20 \mathrm{pts}$
cone 3 =30pts

FSHCE

Think of all the things you are good at. What skills and interests do you have that make you, YOU?
What do others like about you? What are the qualities that make you special?
Use the star template in the classroom to use pictures and words to answer these questions!

Tuesday Grammar

Adding relative clauses add SO much detail and interest value to your writing. Look at the sentences in the classroom about Erik the Viking and add a relative clause to each one....
